July 10-19

2005 British Open The Old Course

ST. ANDREWS, SCOTLAND

Depart the US on Sunday, arriving in Scotland Monday morning. Take time to rest Monday and enjoy the sights of Dunkeld on your own. Join our group tonight at dinner in our hotel. Tuesday you will play the Taymouth Castle Golf Course, designed by James Braid. Non-golfers will visit the cozy towns of Aberfeldy and Kenmore. Wednesday you will play the picturesque Club Course in Perthshire while non-golfers visit the Victorian town of Pitlochry. Thursday thru Sunday are magical as you experience the British Open. You will also have free time in Edinburgh. Monday you will play Rosemount Course in Blairgowrie described by Tom Morris as "the most beautiful inland green I have ever seen". Non-golfers will visit Glamis Castle, the childhood home of the last Queen Mother and the legendary setting of "Macbeth". We enjoy our last dinner tonight at our hotel. You can fly home Tuesday or extend your stay on your own or we can assist you with a packaged tour to other areas in Europe. WOW!
