Thanks you so very much for putting together my trip to Wimbledon. You did a fantastic job making all the arrangements. The entire experience was perfect, I could not have asked for more.

I checked out the British museum Thursday, and Buckingham Palace Friday. The Royal Band played a selection of Michael Jackson songs after the guard changing (it was quite the sight and sound).

Hopefully you saw the men's final...Andy Roddick played a near perfect match...and lost...is that a testament to Federer's greatness.

I will most definitely recommend you and Broach Tours to all my friends. I will also be calling you when I decide to go to the Australian and French Opens, as well as any other travel in the future.

I really appreciate pulling together my trip. It was fun to hang with you! Thanks,
